Comment(s) or question(s)	This significant increase in insurance costs for those on a fixed income is devastating. For all of our working years, it has been ingrained to work hard for a high/good credit rating. Apparently, being able to pay our bills as a good citizen and consumer, reaps nothing in return. This insurance cost is such a sharp increase I am afraid what some may have to forego to be able to manage all their bills plus these unexpected costs. We all need insurance but at what cost? There has to be a better approach to this.
