| Comment(s) or question(s) | I work hard, I am responsible, and live within my means. I make sure to pay my bills on time and use use my credit card responsibly. I maintain a two (2) year emergency fund in case the worst happens. As a result, I have an excellent credit score which reflects the kind of person I am and the risk I pose to my insurer. I want them to factor in my credit score to give me a discount and I strongly oppose ANY prohibition on the insurance company to use my credit history to determine my insurance rates. It is wrong to make good, responsible people like myself to subsidize others who don't share or live by those values. |
