Comment(s) or question(s)	Kreidler's draft rule language requiring insurers to explain premium changes to policyholders: the draft rule applies to personal insurance policies as defined in RCW 48.18.545. This definition is limited to private passenger autos, homeowners coverage, dwelling property coverage, personal liability and theft coverage, personal inland marine coverage and mechanical breakdown coverage for personal auto or home appliances. It does not include professional medical liability. To avoid any suggestion that our coverages might be within the "personal liability" heading, should the carriers submit a request for a clarifying statement in the rule-making? Please contact me 206.200.6055 to discuss and/or email Anne@phyins.com. I hope you are enjoying this Fall-like Summer!
