

OFFICE OF
INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

November 1, 2024

To: All authorized property & casualty companies transacting the business of insurance during years of 2021, 2022, and 2023.

Subject: Property & Casualty Policy County Data Call

I, Mike Kreidler, Insurance Commissioner of Washington state direct all authorized property & casualty companies transacting the business of insurance to complete the “policy count” data call for experience years 2021, 2022, 2023. This data call was previously issued in 2019, 2020, and 2021. It will be reinstated as an annual call going forward.

The information submitted to us will be considered confidential in compliance with RCW 48.02.65 and will not be released to the public; however, we may release a report of the data in the aggregate. Any report will not contain any company specific information.

Attached is a Data Call Template and Instruction Page. Please complete the template according to the instructions. We will not accept data submitted in a different format.

The data requested is to be submitted electronically to datacall@oic.wa.gov by December 11, 2024. Please include a contact name and their information in the email submission.

If you have any questions, please contact David Forte, Senior Policy Advisor – Property & Casualty, at (360) 725-7268 or david.forte@oic.wa.gov. We appreciate your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Mike Kreidler".

Mike Kreidler
Insurance Commissioner

[Sent electronically]