

Get help paying for Medicare

Information for American Indians & Alaskan Natives
See if you qualify for a Medicare Savings Program and/or Extra Help!

Two programs that may help you save on Medicare

If you're enrolled in Medicare, you may qualify for programs to help you save money whether you have Original Medicare or a Medicare Advantage plan -- and applying is easy:

1. The Medicare Savings Programs

If you qualify, Medicare Savings Programs may cover:

- Part A premiums
- Medicare copayments
- Part B premiums
- Medicare deductibles

Medicare Savings Programs for help with Medicare Parts A & B costs (Effective April 1, 2024)

	INCOME less than:
Single person	$1,752 per month
	$21,024 per year
Couple	$2,371 per month
	$28,452 per year

NOTE: There is no resource/asset test for the MSPs. This means you won't be asked to verify any resources such as bank account balances.

2. Extra Help (also called Low-Income Subsidy)

If you qualify, Extra Help for Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage covers:

- Premiums
- Some copay costs
- Deductibles
- Donut hole/coverage gap

Extra Help for Medicare Part D (Effective February 2024)

	INCOME less than:	RESOURCES less than:
Single person	$1,903 per month	$17,220
	$22,836 per year
Couple	$2,575 per month	$34,360
	$30,900 per year

NOTE: People who work may have even higher incomes than what these charts show. For both programs, resources do not include the home you live in and one car.

What counts as income and resources?

Income includes earnings, Social Security payments, pension payments and cash assistance.

It doesn't include food, housing or home energy assistance; up to $2,000 per year an American Indian/Alaska Native receives from individual interests in trusts or restricted lands; or payments to specific Indian Tribe members as provided by federal legislation.

Resources include money in a checking or savings account, retirement account, stocks, bonds or real estate other than your primary residence.

It doesn't include your house, car, furniture, clothing, household items, land held in trust for an individual or Tribe, or funds held in trust by the Secretary of the Interior for an Indian Tribe and distributed per capita to tribal members.

Medicare Part B preventive benefits

If you have Medicare Part B, take advantage of some of Medicare's preventive benefits with no out-of-pocket costs to you. Here are just some of the preventive services Medicare offers:

- Annual Wellness visit
- Bone mass measurements
- Breast cancer screening
- Cardiovascular screening
- Colorectal cancer screening
- Diabetes self-management training
- Flu shots
- Obesity screening and counseling
- Smoking and tobacco-use cessation counseling

See Medicare.gov or your Medicare & You book for a full list of preventive benefits.

NOTE: Additional provider tests or services could add costs. You must meet coverage criteria, so be sure to check with your medical provider for more information before you run these or other tests and services.
