ⁱ Illinois incomes tax is calculated as follows for retaliatory purposes:

$$\text{Stand-alone company filing} \times \frac{\text{Washington State Schedule T Premiums}}{\text{Total Schedule T premiums}} = \text{Illinois income tax due for previous calendar year}$$

$$\text{Company from a unified return is filing} \times \frac{\text{Washington State Schedule T Premiums}}{\text{Total Schedule T premiums}} \times \frac{\text{WA authorized insurer base income}}{\text{unified group base income}} = \text{Illinois income tax due for previous calendar year}$$

ⁱⁱ MTA surcharge is calculated as follows for retaliatory purposes:

Insurer's NY premiums subject to MTA surcharge / insurer's NY total premiums x insurer's WA state premiums * MTA rate (0.17% in 2020).
